New Student to the District - You need to complete the online registration on the Thompson School District website: https://www.thompsonschools.org/Page/9500

Once your online registration has been processed (usually 2-3 working days AFTER the date of submission), the registrar from Bill Reed will contact you directly by email. You will need to send, via email: proof of residency (e.g., current City of Loveland or Xcel bill, or lease/mortgage documents), immunization records (with the required 6th grade Tdap booster), birth certificate, previous school records, and any legal documentation the school may need. Please e-mail Angela Wilson at angela.wilson@thompsonschools.org with questions.

Parents, please note, school staff are off for the summer until August 1st. All new applications, open enrollments, emails, and phone calls will be returned after that date.

REMINDER – All Incoming 6th Grade Students – Please make sure you have received your 6th grade TDAP booster, and all immunizations are up to date, before the first day of school.

IMPORTANT DATES:

On Wednesday, August 4th, from 8am to 3pm, you may drop off your students' fall sports packets (along with an up-to-date physical, including immunizations with the required 6th Grade Tdap booster, and sports fees) to the athletic director. You may sign up, ask questions, and receive up-to-date information during this time. Cross Country, Swim/Dive, and Girls Volleyball practice starts Wednesday, August 11th. See the website for more information. Please email the Athletic Director, Heidi Christensen at heidi.christensen@thompsonschools.org for questions.
