“Are you interested in cooking, fashion, interior design, teaching, leadership, or community involvement? Would you like the opportunity to connect with other students, make a difference in your community, become a better leader, compete in awesome events, and even earn scholarships? Than F-C-C-L-A is for you! Come find out all about this awesome student organization Wednesday at lunch in Cottage 2”

Attention Sophomores and Juniors: Join us May 3rd for lunch as a college representative will discuss strategies for writing successful college and scholarship essays and applications. The rep will share tips and common mistakes to avoid. College Application Month will be here before you know it - start preparing now!

Calling all Sophomore and Junior leaders! If you are interested in making a difference for freshmen next year, apply to be a LINK leader! Applications are available in the Rabbit Ears, Mummy Range, and Indian Peaks centers and are due by 3:00pm next Wed. May 3rd. LINK on!

“There will be an informational meeting about summer basketball for boys interested in playing at lunch today in Mr. Appelhans’ room. If you are planning on playing this summer you need to attend.”

Those are the announcements for today. Have a great day Mountain View!
