DAAC serves as an advisory committee to the Board of Education in compliance with the Educational Accountability Act of 2009.

One of the tasks of DAAC is to provide input for the annual report to district patrons. The input shall summarize the accomplishments of DAC.

DAAC is obligated to respond to the charge(s)/areas of study which shall be cooperatively determined by the Board and DAAC annually.

A person who is employed by the district or related to a district employee shall not be eligible to serve as a parent on DAAC. “Related” is defined as the person’s spouse, son, daughter, sister, brother, mother or father. If, however, the district makes a good faith effort and is unable to identify a sufficient number of parents that meet these criteria, a person may serve as a parent on DAAC and also be employed by the district or related to a district employee.

The Board shall appoint persons to DAAC for two-year terms. In making these appointments, the Board shall ensure, to the extent practicable, that:

• at least one of the parents is a parent of a student enrolled in a district charter school authorized by the Board, if one exists; and
• at least one of the persons appointed has demonstrated knowledge of charter schools.

If the Board chooses to increase the number of persons on DAAC, it shall ensure that the number of parents appointed exceeds the number of representatives from the group with the next highest representation.

DAAC shall elect a parent representative to serve as chairperson and another parent representative. to serve as vice-chairperson for one year. DAAC shall also establish a schedule of meetings and adopt general rules for its operation. All DAAC meetings shall be preceded by public notice and shall be open to the public.

DAAC will make every effort to sustain and transfer institutional knowledge with the addition of new members.

Such alternate plan shall reflect the required representation stated above as much as practicable.
