DISCIPLINE OF DISRUPTIVE STUDENTS

Any student who is suspended three times in any one school year for one or more of the grounds stated in Board Exhibit JKD/JKE-E in paragraphs 1 (continued willful disobedience), 2 (willful destruction of property), 3 (behavior which is detrimental) or 5 (serious violation); under circumstances that cause a material and substantial disruption; occurring while at school or on school grounds, at a school-sanctioned activity or event, or while being transported in a school-approved vehicle; and involving behavior that is initiated, willful and overt on the part of the student shall be declared an habitually disruptive student and shall be subject to mandatory expulsion in accordance with Board Policy JKD/JKE, Classroom Removal/Suspension/Expulsion/Denial of Admission, and state law.

No student shall be declared habitually disruptive prior to the development and implementation of a remedial discipline plan. The remedial discipline plan is to address the child’s disruptive behavior and his educational needs with the goal of keeping the child in school.

Any student who engages in disruptive behavior that leads to two suspensions shall be subject to an individual remedial discipline plan developed in accordance with Board Regulation JKC-R.

Students with Disabilities

Disruptive behavior by a student identified as a student with disabilities, as defined by Board Policy JKD/JKE, shall be dealt with in accordance with the student’s individual education plan. Students with disabilities shall be subject to expulsion as an habitually disruptive student only if a determination has been made by the student’s special education staffing team that the disruptive behavior is not a manifestation of the student’s disability.
