Board Community Engagement Session

Questions

- What is the purpose of transgender policy?
- Whose children are they?
- Splash in PSD?
- Why sexuality in schools?
- What efforts are being made for retainment and recruitment?
- What about new MLO or bonds?
- Can PD be slowed down for elementary teachers? Elementary teachers need to use the “Science of Reading” training and implement it.
- Can there be some PD time given to teachers to network across TSD with like teachers?
- Is CRT and gender identity being taught in TSD classrooms?
- How can families access equity, diversity and inclusion materials in advance?
- How can we find room in the budget to increase teacher pay?
- How can we improve communication between the Board and community in a polite manner?
- Since 2015, funding has gone up but is that money getting to the classroom?
- Are the electives in 6-12 grade getting enough time and do students have enough time for them?
- Are teachers trained and able to handle disagreements and encourage strong family values?
- Are teachers respectful of the many values students bring to the classroom including family values?
- How can we approve accountability for all families, not just some?
- Why don’t department heads evaluate teachers instead of principals?
- Is it policy of TSD to not allow parents to come sit in the classroom and observe?
- What is bullying, please define?
- What is your objective in changing to this extreme curriculum?
- Why are you confusing our children and our future generations with your beliefs?
- Wondering if people/parents are pulling their kids out of school and if yes, does it concern you?
- Any plans to teach gender identity to K-3rd grade?
- How can we provide support for families to get kids to school and what are the consequences for excessive absences?
- Are these forums only for those of us who have questions to "blow off steam"? I was under the impression this forum was to specifically address the earlier meeting regarding equity, diversity and inclusion. I am frustrated that it was so wide open and mostly about teacher concerns.
