

LHS Electives Showcase - January 16, 2020

Video Links	Other links	Notes / Comments / Contact Information
JROTC / Social Studies	Facebook Page LHS Website page	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • 0.5 Fitness credit / 0.5 Civics credit for JROTC I • Community service requirement for graduation • JROTC III Service Learning Project meets the capstone graduation requirement • 3 hours of college credit in Poli-Sci through UCCS with concurrent enrollment in JROTC IV • 1-4 year ROTC scholarships available • Military Academy nominations available • Contact Harold Johnson for more information
The Peak Studio	The PEAK Studio Homepage The PEAK of Existence Podcast	As of right now, it is a teacher aide credit to work as a producer and engineer in the podcast studio. Contact Danny Hollweg for more information.
International Baccalaureate Program	LHS IB Testimonial IB Projects Showcase LHS IB Website	The Middle Years Programme (MYP) is in 9th and 10th grades, and all classes will be labeled as MYP/Honors (most departments). The Diploma Programme (DP) is in 11th and 12th grades and provides a very high level of college preparation. Contact John Parks for more information.
Physical Education		Contact Wendy Thompson for more information.
Visual Arts	LHS Art Department Website	Contact the Visual Arts teachers for more information: Brian Causer, Jennifer Martin, Chandon Hammersmith, Jenn Hall
Family and Consumer Science	LHS FCS Courses	Contact the FCS teachers for more information: Julie Trosper, Tonia Webb, Samantha Kressin
Yearbook	Jostens Yearbook Video	Yearbook is a full-year class (1.0 credit) that provides an elective credit. Students develop skills in writing, editing, photography, layout design, collaboration, communication, and leadership. It is a fun, fast-paced class for anyone wishing to be truly involved in all aspects of life at LHS. Contact Courtney Sylva for more information.
Band	LHS Band Website LHS Band Facebook Page	Band is a co-curricular full-year class for brass, woodwind, and percussion students. Colorguard students are first semester only with the option to do extra-curricular Winterguard. No experience is needed to join Concert Band or Colorguard. Instructor approval is required for marching band if you've never played an instrument. Contact Kyle Freesen for more information.